Intergenerational Entry (Youth & Elder / Combined Project)

VISUAL AND TEXTILE ART: You may use collage (without trademark or brand name images), oil, water color, acrylic, inks, markers, crayons, sculptures, mobiles, or any types of fabric. Minimum size: 8 1/2" x 11". Maximum size: 18" x 24". Use unlined white paper. Write TOP on the back at the top of your entry or DRAW AN ARROW ↑ pointing to the TOP. Entries may be submitted in either horizontal or vertical format.

LITERARY ARTS: Essays and poems may not exceed 1,500 words. Submit a double-spaced, typewritten manuscript or submit in Word software on a CD. Contestants may enter both categories.

VIDEO AND PHOTOGRAPHY: Photographs may be submitted as black & white or color prints. Minimum size: 3" x 5". Maximum size: 8" x 12". Or as a digital file in .jpg or .tif format. Digital images must be submitted on a CD using the highest resolution possible. Final print size from digital entries will be determined by OPAG based on the file size of the image chosen for display. Each video clip must not exceed ten (10) minutes and must be submitted on a CD.

All entries must be received by 5 p.m. on Friday, February 12th, 2010.

RULES AND RELEASES: Participation is open to all Alaskan residents. All entries must be original in concept and created by the contestants. An adult may help a student with an entry as long as the student does most of the work and concept for the entry is the student's. All entries become the property of OPAG and may be sold at the auction, be published in the Senior Voice, other OPAG publications and/or on the OPAG website at www.opagak.com. Three (3) entries maximum per category. Entries will not be returned. As potential winners of this contest, all applicants give OPAG permission to select and reproduce their entries. If an entry is selected for an OPAG poster, for the Senior Voice newspaper, or in another OPAG publication, the applicant will NOT receive monetary compensation, but credit only for the entry.

PRIZES: 1st place winners in all categories (Visual/Textile Arts, Literary Arts, and Video/photography) and age groups will have their name and entry in a statewide traveling exhibit. All winners will receive ribbons, a certificate and be published in the Senior Voice Newspaper.

The Anchorage and other school districts in Alaska do not endorse these materials or viewpoints expressed therein.

Awards Ceremony and Auction: Saturday, March 13, 2010, at 3 p.m. at the Anchorage Senior Center, 1300 E. 19th Ave., Anchorage, Alaska 99501.
